PLYMOUTH HIGH SCHOOL

This building was erected in the year 1933 by the citizens of Plymouth and dedicated to the purpose of educating the youth of this city.

WE, THE CLASS OF 1941,

sincerely thank the citizens of Plymouth for the fine opportunities they have herein offered us.

Dedication

To a teacher who has guided the present graduating class through four years of class activities; under whose guidance we sailed through the Prom with flying colors.

To a teacher who has inspired many students and always shown them friendship, confidence, and understanding.

To a teacher of whom the students can say, "He has not only been a 'swell' teacher, but a real friend."

To

MR. VERNON L. ZIMMERMAN,

we, the class of 1941, do dedicate this edition of the Quit Qui Oc.

Foreword

If we are able to bring you in retrospect a realistic picture of events of the past school year; if our efforts have succeeded in igniting in you a spark of reminiscence which will bring you happy recollections of the years now completed; if your sorrows, your joys, your dreams can be lived again through the medium of these pages, then our purposes, our every hope, our fullest ambitions, and our labors have been indeed rewarded.

E. W. Luther

Welcome!

To Mr. Luther we extend a hearty welcome to Plymouth High School. We hope that we have made him feel at home and that he will want to stay for many years to come.

He is seldom seen without a smile on his face, and is always ready to lend a helping hand to any student who is in trouble. So to Mr. Luther we say, WELCOME!

Farewell!

To Mr. Senty we bid a fond farewell, and wish him much success in his new venture. We enjoyed his stay of ten years in Plymouth High School, and he has a standing invitation to return and visit us at any time.

We hope Mr. Senty finds as much pleasure in his memories of Plymouth High School as we find in our memories of him.

Senior Class

ADVISORS: MISS ISSERSTEDT AND MR. ZIMMERMAN

The senior class participated in many of the high school activities.

The boys were very active in basketball, the entire first team being made up of seniors. Not to be outdone were the football men. This year our school "eleven" was composed of all seniors, who were ably supported by underclassmen. In track, too, the class was well represented.

The class of '41 had several members who belonged to the Girls' Double Trio and the Boys' Quartet. Many of the students took part in Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs, Band and Mixed Chorus.

Among the seniors were also several very good debaters and speech students.

The class also participated in social activities. It sponsored the annual Frosh-Soph. Party, the successfully planned "Cherry Blossom Prom of '40," and ended each year with a class picnic.

In Memoriam

Every graduating class carries into the world memories of bright and dark days at school. With some classes these memories are more definitely marked than with others. The Class of '41 must be placed in this latter group. The winter's gloom of the year 1940 was made more gloomy by the passing from life of our beloved classmate, Beulah Melius.

It is with loving memory that we pen these words. Memories of this kind linger long, especially when the person of memory was in some particular manner outstanding. Our departed classmate deserves such lasting memory, for in her character and life she proved herself courageous, friendly, and jovial. One and all were attracted to her because of these traits. We will miss Beulah always.

Our years are like the shadows
On sunny hills that lie
Or grasses in the meadows
That blossom but to die;
A sleep, a dream, a story,
By strangers quickly told,
An unremaining glory
Of things that soon are old.

Class Prophecy

June 4, 1950, Miami Beach Florida:

Our class's most ambitious, Hubert Blanke, Bernard Dippel, Harold Blanke, Arwin Graef, and Edward Kastelic are on a round-the-world bicycle trip. Miss Betty Yunker reported this interesting bit of news to us, as the boys are stopping over night at Miami Beach.

Baltimore, Maryland:

Mr. Merlin Nelson's reunion of his classmates on the yacht, "Harriet Mae," in Delaware Bay, was the highest in hilarity of any of the season. The first of the guests to arrive was Miss Betty Jean Hodge, famous writer of the Etiquette Column of the New York Times, accompanied by the well-known screen lover, Art Steinhardt. Next to arrive was Miss Mary Beth Mathewson, now head of the Coca-Cola Bottling Industry, and her private secretary, Elaine Nelson. They attracted considerable attention until the inventor of the self-spacing typewriter, Bob Miller, was seen skimming across the bay in his motor launch. Francis Baker and George Kapellen, who have a partnership in a large concern, boarded the yacht with cameras to snap the smiling faces of their classmates. Kay Theobald arrived in her latest Vogue creation with Karl Stark and Heyl Cary, who are making a tour of the United States on the subject, "How to Speak." William Krueger, opera star, sang during refreshments. Dancing was enjoyed to the melodious music of Harold Zorn and his Zornonions," featuring Miss Berneice Schellinger as the vocalist.

Cleveland, Ohio:

As evidenced by their class records, we find our forethoughts are true. Maureen Bullough, Delores Lueder, Myles Spann and Carl Kaeding have finished their experiment with serum to get rid of hiccoughs. Dan Doherty and John Holbrook tried some of the serum and it certainly must have worked. Miss Marion Burgdorf edits an entirely different type of paper. It contains no news; every page is funnies! Ella Buuck is her chief customer. Jane Freutal, Jane Fett and Ruth Hein are a few of the stars at the Ritz Cafe. The cafe is owned by Melvin LeMahieu, whose chief singing waiter is Dario Rossini. Gerald Verhulst is president of a Girls' Finishing School in Cleveland. If we stroll on the campus we may find Harriet Griesbach, Maxine Chandler, Jean Baar, and Muriel Lamb.

Washington, D. C.

Lewis Becher, Minnesota senator, and Eugene Dyke, Wisconsin senator, are very busy with their ever present debates on whether school hours should be made shorter. Isabelle Stephan, a former student of Mr. Williams, is the fastest shorthand writer and typist in the Capitol. Doris Marth, Beatrice Meerstein, Marilyn Miller, and Lucille Johnson are fighting for the improvement of the slums.

Hollywood, California:

The champion wrestler of the world, William Gasper, was awarded a contract to appear in the movies and will play opposite Myrtle Suemnicht. A brilliant news reporter, Ralph Bade, interviewed Myrtle and William. Bob Andrews, whose pictures are seen in all Arrow Shirt ads, is vacationing at the home of Luella Wittkopp, a composer of music for 20th Century Fox. A new pupil, Joe Raml, has entered Betty North's "Better Physique School." Incidently, Joe is now singing over at NBC. The Spinster Club, of which Delores Binder is president, doesn't take advantage of Leap Year. Some of the members are: June Brautgam, Jane Gerber, Gloria Odekirk, Luella Raeder, and Lucille Kleinhans. Ray Lahl, air pilot, is rumored engaged to an air hostess on the same plane. She's Miss Betty Jean Meyer. Leona Heinrich and Helen Gerber own the "Smart Shop." For the latest in fashion, stop in and see Leona and Helen. Enola LaBudde has accepted a position as skating instructor on an indoor rink. Some of the best pupils are Elaine Koehn, Rosemary Kampmann, Lorna Koopman, and Gladys Schuette. Miss Mary Jeanne Foy, popular "Lullaby Lady," has been offered a contract for one year in the movies. Her leading man will be Darwin Blanke. Helen Schuette, Lucille Rosenthal, June Gessert, Leona Levson, and Delores Jens are operating a bakery shop.

Plymouth, Wisconsin:

The new Plymouth Hospital, equipped with everything modern, has also a new staff. It is headed by Miss Marjorie Wolff. Some of her capable assistants are Harriet Arndt, Arlisle Capelle, Alice Carolla, and Helen Johnson. We find Miss Polly Gilman, head receptionist; and Harriet Radloff, chief dietitian. A frequent visitor to the hospital is Mr. Charles Strobel — not poor in health — but could it be the head of the staff? Mayor Eugene Kretsch has just succeeded in getting the Council to start a new senior high because of the increase in the junior high enrollment. The Superintendent of Schools, Gordon Minch, and Principal Ralph Krueger, have received a check for $1,000,000 from Earl Beck, leading millionaire architect, of New York, for the purchase of new equipment for the mechanical drawing class. Fred Pratt's circus is presenting its feats here, and the snake-charmer is Miss Margaret Dees. David O'Neil owns one of the largest dairy farms in the state. His wife, the former Miss Marjorie Schulz, makes an attractive milkmaid. A new factory, called "Chew-Chew Gum Co.," in which Randall Janisse is president, has, as its best customer, Mary Sramek. At Plymouth High, Evelyn Siebert is now teaching one o'clock American History; Jean Larson is gym instructor, and Olga Witthuhn teaches German and English. Lyla Dennerlein and Betty Jane Dwyre are making a campaign of the city for the improvement of housing conditions.

Somewhere in Africa:

Alden Van Der Sande, Edward Mueller, Robert Mullen, Frank Corneia, and John Wick are somewhere in the African jungles looking for new species of beasts.

We remain respectfully yours,

THE PROPHETESSES:

FRANCES REIHMAN and ADELINE YELLEN.

Junior Prom

On May 3, 1940, to the music of Jack Cameron's Orchestra, the dancers in the P. H. S. gym danced another successful Junior Prom into history. Karl Stark, who was elected by the Junior class as Prom king, chose the following classmates as committee chairmen:

Decorating.....Jean Larson
Orchestra .....Polly Gilman
Advertising.....Ralph Krueger
Refreshments .....Betty North
Program.....Harold Zorn
Construction .....Merlin Nelson

KING KARL

The efficient work of these committees, assisted by Miss Alice Gfrorer and Mr. Vernon Zimmerman, the class advisors, helped to make the prom a success.

The gymnasium was attractively decorated as a Japanese garden, with the crystal ball revolving in the center. The soft light of Japanese lanterns and the trees loaded with delicate pink and white cherry blossoms added a touch of romance to the atmosphere. The orchestra was seated under an attractive Japanese roof.

While the orchestra played the school song, Karl Stark and his queen, Betty Jean Meyer, led the Grand March which climaxed this social event of the year.

QUEEN BETTY JEAN

Class Will

KNOW ALL ME BY THESE PRESENTS, that we, the Class of 1941, City of Plymouth, County of Sheboygan, State of Wisconsin, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, declare and publish this our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by us made.

Article I

TO THE FACULTY:

(1) To Mr. Luther we bequeath a lie detector for the students who play "hooky" from school.

(2) To Mr. Williams we bequeath Helene Dickman to teach him to "jitterbug" and fulfill his life-time ambition.

(3) To Mr. Zimmerman we leave a long ladder to hang his storm windows in windy weather, so he won't have to hang from window sills.

(4) To Mr. Strohacker we leave a class of admirers. (This does not include boys.)

(5) To Miss Berge we bequeath some yarn so she can knit for the Red Cross.

(6) To Miss Carlyle we will a life-time student librarian.

(7) To Mr. Intravaia we leave a brass band with golden notes.

(8) To Miss Gruenberger we leave the problem of how to find the area of a square circle.

(9) To Mr. Owens we bequeath the fragments of our broken test tubes to use as evidence of our carelessness in his future "lab" classes.

(10) We will leave Mr. Splitgerber one free permanent wave.

(11) To Mr. Draeger we bequeath girls for a "Girls' Industrial Art" class.

(12) We leave to Miss Madden a group of hungry teachers to sample cookies, candies, cake, and so forth.

(13) We bequeath to Miss Furman three strong men to move her desk whenever she wishes.

(14) To Miss Abel we will a wedding ring to take the place of her engagement ring. Then Jean Larson can collect that $5.00 bet.

(15) To Miss Huff we leave an electric adding machine for her Junior High math. classes.

(16) To Miss Isserstedt we will a brilliant class to eliminate the delinquent list.

(17) To Mr. Kahl we leave a large bottle of peroxide. (Girls prefer blonds.)

(18) We will Mr. Laufenberg a special book of diets which does not include candy bars.

(19) To Miss McHugh we bequeath a pair of oars to go with her stadium boots.

(20) We bequeath Miss Simnicht a make-up kit to put wrinkles in her forehead to distinguish her from the students.

(21) To Miss Nuernberg we will a good luck charm to keep her from losing keys and other miscellaneous articles.

(22) We will Miss Stiehm a sharp knife (cut off my legs and call me "Shorty.")

(23) To Miss Wernecke we leave our hearts so she will be kinder to the boys who stand in the halls. (Have a heart!)

(24) To Miss Stowell we will an assistant to write the names of mischievous freshmen in room 115.

(25) We bequeath to Mr. Nelson a portable piano for teaching tap dancing lessons.

(26) We will to Mr. Helwig a modern streamlined doghouse. (Not for for the dog either.)

(27) To Mr. Stahl we will champion football, basketball, and track teams for the next ten years.

(28) To Mrs. Helwig we bequeath a mechanical robot to perform her household duties while she is teaching school.

(29) To Miss Ahles we will a duplicate chain of keys for those teachers who forever borrow hers.

(30) We will Miss Tingley an electric excuse writer.

Article II

TO VARIOUS INDIVIDUALS:

(1) Karl Stark presents his physique to Willie Waterman.

(2) Ben Harper bequeaths his musical ability to Jean Martin.

(3) Delores Lueder wills her intelligence to Clemate Kaiser.

(4) Betty Jean Meyer bestows her sex-appeal to Evelyn Iserloth.

(5) Eugene Kretsch leaves his girl to Jerome Eigenberger.

(6) Jane Freutal leaves her quietness to Helene Hoffman.

(7) Kay Theobald leaves her dimples to Adeline Clemens.

(8) Merlin Nelson bequeaths his great ability in athletics to any one that can "take it."

(9) To the janitors we bequeath a year's vacation.

Article III

TO THE CLASSES:

(1) To the Juniors we bequeath our dignified manner.

(2) To the Sophomores we leave our sense of humor.

(3) To the Freshmen we will our super-intelligence.

ATTESTATION CLAUSE

The above instrument, with no interlineations, was on the day of its date, sealed and published and declared by the said Class of 1941 to be their last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, at their request, in their presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names hereto as attesting witnesses.

We further certify that in our judgment and belief, said Class of 1941 is, at this time, and the time of making said will, of sound mind and disposing memory.

ADVISORS: MISS STOWELL, AND MR. LAUFENBERG

The major part of the students taking part in debate and forensics were Juniors, and the debate team should rate top honors next year.

The Juniors were very active in music; both vocal and instrumental.

Both boys and girls have been active in athletics of all kinds.

Being dramatically inclined, many of the Juniors have participated in the stage productions this year.

Mary Calvey was elected Homecoming queen and reigned over the Homecoming Dance.

Sophomore Class

ADVISORS: MISS STIEHM AND MR. SPLITGERBER

The Sophomore class was a very capable and outstanding one, excelling in athletics, forensics, and music.

As is the custom, they welcomed the new Freshman class with a Sophomore-Freshman party. Entertainment included games and dancing, after which cake and ice cream were served.

Freshman Class

ADVISORS: MISS WERNECKE AND MR. DRAEGER

The annual social function of the class was the Freshman-Sophomore party held February 15. The work of the advisors and the committees appointed made this party a big success.

Members of the class of 1944 have taken part in many of the school activities. Three members were interested in extemporaneous reading.

An active part was taken in athletics. Six boys played football and five played basketball; about sixteen participated in track activities. Four girls played on the basketball teams after school.

Our music department needed the help of the Freshmen too. Five members of the class played in the Senior Band; nine in the Junior Band; ten sang in the Glee Club.

Class of '44

Dear Enola,

I thought this would be a good place to write - the title is very appropriate don't you think? We had some pretty fine times in this dump, didn't we? But we can't say "good-bye now" 'cuz that wouldn't do. I'll be up to Crystal sometime and you must come to Cascade. Don't forget to stop at Cascade on your way to West Bend - it was fun - remember the good old chats about everyone? Those noons when we walked down town and talked about a certain tavern - keepers daughter - remember? See thanks Nans for all the fun Sunday - I really enjoyed it. You sure can spill things - on the table + floor - I mean. Of course I don't blame you - the morning after the night before is usually pretty bad. I hope your ambition comes true - the one you told me - in the bedroom. I'm sorry I couldn't show you a better time Sunday night - Lake Ellen was pretty dead! As one beer fan to another - don't drink too much and stay sober. Don't let the floor throw you. I'll never forget that ride around town. Be careful with that nephew of yours. I'll bet those snaps will be good. Don't forget to send them - I'll send the others too. Don't forget me please. and I'll write when I'm Milwaukee - if you answer.

Be good and have fun!

Love,
"Mgt"

SENATE

The senate is a student organization which seeks to uphold the traditions of Plymouth High School. It is composed of representatives from each of the 14 home rooms, the advisors being Miss Stowell and Mr. Williams.

The President of Plymouth High School also acts as president of the senate, other officers being elected from members of this organization.

The student senate takes an active part in the control of student life. A new system was introduced whereby any club wishing to function in P. H. S. must have a charter approved by the senate.

One of the most important undertakings of the year was the sponsorship of the annual carnival, the theme for the past year being "The Gay Nineties."

National Honor Society

At the first meeting of the National Honor Society, the following officers were elected:

President.....Jack Reedy
Vice-President .....Berneice Schellinger
Secretary.....Polly Gilman
Treasurer and Advisor.....Miss Wernecke

One of the greatest achievement of any student is to be elected a member of the National Honor Society. To be eligible for membership one must rate in the upper third of his class scholastically. Then the membership is based on leadership, character, and service.

The annual Christmas banquet was sponsored on December 26, 1940, by the active members of the society: Jack Reedy, Berneice Schellinger, Jean Larson, Karl Stark, and Polly Gilman.

The society had charge of the corridor monitor system. Students selected by the society were put in charge of corridors before and after school and also during classes. The monitors were distinguished by an orange arm band with a black "P" and star. The purpose of the monitors was to maintain orderly conduct in the corridors.

On March 20, the following new members were initiated into the society: Ralph Bade, Lyla Dennerlein, Ben Harper, Ralph Krueger, Delores Lueder, Robert Miller, Betty North, Marjorie Wolff, and Evelyn Siebert from the senior class, and Mary Hill, Carl Hoeppner, Joyce Hollenberger, Jean Holzschuh, and Delia Rossini from the junior class. Both formal and informal initiations were held.

High School Band

The High School Band, under the able direction of Mr. Intravaia, again had a very active and successful year. In addition to providing snappy music at all pep meetings and home football and basketball games, it presented several assembly programs before the student body which were enthusiastically received. The band students also presented several vesper concerts for the citizens of Plymouth, which were very well attended and received.

This year Plymouth was host to about 2,000 students from over twenty musical organizations when the Music Festival was held here on May 10. The highlights of this gala event were the gigantic parade in the afternoon and the program in the evening. Two weeks earlier, on April 26, the Solo and Ensemble Contest was also held at Plymouth, and 350 soloists and 130 ensembles presented their numbers.

Through the untiring efforts of the Music Mothers, new equipment was again purchased for the band. This organization presented the band with the new Pershing style hats with orange plumes, new orange web belts to replace the old Sam Browne belts, and four white drum majorette uniforms. The school purchased fifteen new twirling batons and new orange bass and snare drums.

This year a new award system was established. Students who had earned from 1,000 to 1,250 points received the minor award, which consisted of a small black and orange letter "P" with a black trumpet in the center. Those students who earned over 1,250 points were presented with the major award of a large orange and white letter with a small trumpet inscribed in the center. Points were given for all work performed outside of activities for school credits, such as: extra rehearsals, holiday rehearsals, sectionals, programs, concerts, pep meetings, athletic games, solo and ensemble rehearsals and programs, and participation in the Music Festival.

Mixed Chorus

The Mixed Chorus, directed by Miss McHugh, presented two programs, on December 15 and April 2, for the entertainment of the public; also presented several programs for the student body.

Our chorus took an active part in the colorful music festival held in Plymouth May 10. They very ably rendered "Cherubic Hymn," "Cast Thy Burden," and "He's Watching Over Israel" in competitive classes.

Smaller ensembles groups also took part in a contest held in Plymouth April 26, and in entertainment for various organizations.

The ensembles were composed of the following people:

Trio I — Evelyn Siebert, Irmgard Wessel, and Betty North.

Double Trio I — Johanna Mayer, Evelyn Strobel, Pearl Koehler, Doreen Aderman, Helene Hoffman, and Berneice Schellinger.

Boys Glee Club

The Boys Glee Club was organized this year by our vocal director, Miss McHugh, during the first two weeks of school.

The Glee Club had an enrollment of twenty-one members from the freshman through the senior classes.

Some of the typical numbers sung by the Glee Club were: "Winter Song," "Kentucky Babe," and "Aunt Jemima."

The boys also did arrangements of "Japanese Sandman," "Tea for Two," "March of the Musketeers," and "When Day Is Done."

Hello --- hot one.
Was last nite a hard one?
you look all fagged out.
Well goo-bye peroxide.

p.s. please save the boy-friend.

P. H. S. Debaters

In accordance with custom, the Plymouth debaters were hosts at the season's first practice tournament held on November 16. The question for the year was, "Resolved, That the Powers of the Federal Government Should Be Increased," which was an especially timely one.

The senior debaters traveled to the Debate Clinic at Marquette on November 30, to Sheboygan North on December 7, to Madison on December 14, at which place Plymouth tied as first place winner of the tournament, and to Waukesha on February 1. An interesting part of the season was the debate between Chilton and Plymouth, held at Plymouth and given before the entire student body.

The Freshman-Sophomore debaters participated at the tournaments held at Sheboygan North, Sheboygan Central, and a special tournament at Mayville on December 14.

Plymouth was represented at the National Forensic League State Debate Tournament at Marquette on March 7-8 by the affirmative team: Darwin Blanke and Jack Reedy; and the negative team: Carl Hoeppner and Heyl Cary.

Dear Enola:
Its been swell fun going around with you. We must do it more often. I hope I see lots of you this summer.
Love Betty

National Forensic League

At the first meeting of the Plymouth High School Chapter 658 of the National Forensic League the following officers were elected:

President.....Carl Hoeppner
Vice-President .....Joyce Hollenberger
Secretary-Treasurer.....Jean Holzschuh
Advisor .....Mr. Laufenberg

The National Forensic League is an honorary organization for high school students who distinguish themselves in the various divisions of forensics, debate, oratory, declamatory, and extemporaneous speaking. The activity period was especially advantageous to the N. F. L. because on Mondays and Thursday the Speech Club met, at which time the speech students could practice.

On January 17 five students attended the Student Congress at West Bend. The representatives were: Karl Stark, Jack Reedy, and Heyl Cary; the senators: Darwin Blanke and Carl Hoeppner. True to tradition, they introduced a cheese bill, to place all kinds of cheese under federal regulation, which passed both houses.

In order to become a member of the N. F. L. a student must rank in the upper two-thirds of his class and must possess qualities of leadership. He must earn at least twenty points in competition with other schools, and he must also be elected by a three-fourths vote by the members of the local chapter.

Degrees are awarded as to rank, such as: Degree of Merit, 20 points; Degree of Honor, 50 points; Degree of Excellence, 100 points; and Degree of Distinction, 150 points.

Standing: J. Reedy, Mr. Laufenberg, F. Kaufman, G. Kapellen, D. Brown, L. Pleckenpol, R. Viel, A. Graef, T. Peterman, J. Mayer.

Seated: D. Rossini, H. Cary, D. Blanke, C. Hoeppner, V. Spradau, M. Bruegger, L. Rossini, J. Radue, H. Hoffman, J. Longrie, C. Sieber, H. Fett, G. Krautkramer.

Speech Club

Students interested in speech work met on Mondays and Thursdays during the activity period. During the first semester they met to discuss the debate proposition and held informal discussions on the topic, and also participated in club debates.

The second semester they met to discuss declamations and practice before the group. This club was open to all who were interested in any branch of speech work, and has proven a valuable asset to the forensic department.

The officers of the club were:

President.....Jack Reedy
Vice-President .....Darwin Blanke
Secretary.....Delia Rossini

Speech Activities

DECLAMATIONS

A number of the students achieved outstanding honors in declamatory work this year under the able guidance of Mrs. Helwig. The following won honors in serious declamations: Marjorie Wolff, June Longrie, Joyce Radue, and Helene Hoffman. These four girls represented Plymouth, which was among the eight schools represented at Milwaukee. Marjorie and June were chosen to speak at Kiel.

Mary Beth Mathewson, Harriet Cary, Thelma Peterman, and Mary Hill were winners of the humorous declamation contest held here. Mary Beth and Mary Hill represented the school at Elkhart Lake and ranked among the best contestants.

EXTEMPORANEOUS READING AND SPEAKING

The subject chosen for extemporaneous reading was non-humorous and non-dialect poems. Marion Bruegger was chosen as the winner of the ten contestants that took part in the contest held in the school library. Marion represented Plymouth in the league contest held at Kiel on April 3. Jack Reedy represented Plymouth in extemporaneous speaking.

ORATIONS

Winners of the oration contest were Darwin Blanke, Arthur Steinhardt, Jack Reedy, Carl Hoeppner, and Fred Kaufman, who represented Plymouth at the oratory contest held at Kenosha on April 4.

Darwin Blanke represented Plymouth at the Eastern Wisconsin League Forensic Meet at Elkhart Lake on April 1, and received an "A" rating, which enabled him to represent the Eastern Wisconsin District at the state contest.

The Footlights Club

The Footlights Club was organized so that its members might better understand the art of drama. During the year the members studied stage make-up, back-stage work, directing, and acting. The officers of the club were as follows:

President.....Betty Jean Meyer
Vice-President .....Helene Hoffman
Secretary.....Mary Beth Mathewson
Treasurer .....Harriet Radloff
Advisor (first semester).....Miss Nuernberg
Advisor (second semester) .....Mrs. Helwig

The club presented a one-act play, called "In the Spring a Young Man's Fancy," before the student body. It starred Heyl Cary as the dashing young American lover. Lover? Yes, he proposed to every girl in the cast. The girls included Joyce Radue, Helene Hoffman, Phyllis Reinke, Betty Jean Meyer, Hazel Wolff, Lillian Rossini, and Mary Corniea. The play was directed by the first semester advisor, Miss Nuernberg, and the student directors, Mary Beth Mathewson and Kay Theobald. This comedy was enthusiastically received by the student body.

Senior Class Play

On May 13 the Senior Class presented the three-act comedy "Tish," under the able direction of Mrs. Helwig. "Tish" is a well-to-do, excitement-loving spinster, who scaled the heights of merriment when she started from home in an automobile with her two closest companions, Aggie and Lizzie. The setting of the play was in the great Southwest. In that colorful locale she became involved in several hair-raising adventures.

JOHANNA AND ROGER

Junior Prom of 1941

On May 16th many pretty girls, dressed in gay-colored formals, and their attentive escorts stood around what appeared to be a huge drum. This was a punch bar at the "Melody Club," as a drum was in keeping with the Junior's musical night club theme of the prom. Other couples sat at modernistic tables around which were fences decorated with musical notes. At the outer entrance spotlights played on the sign "Melody Club." As the dancers entered, the entire gym glimmered with silver touches among the basic black and white coloring.

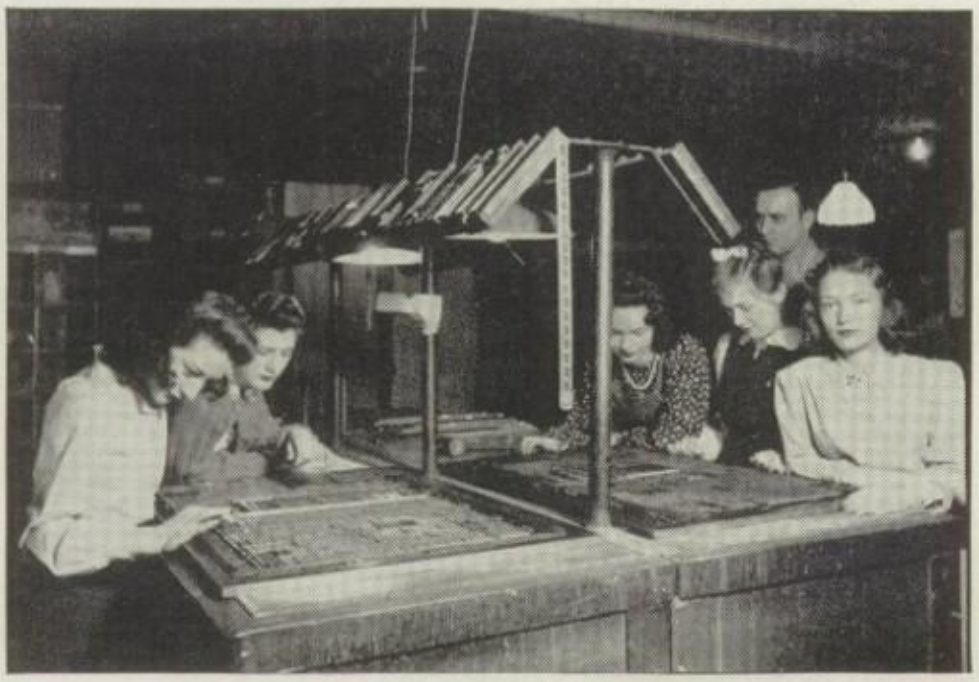
The grand march was led by the king, Roger Eichenberger, and his queen, Johanna Mayer. Johanna and Roger enjoyed swaying and swinging, as did everyone, to the music of Ray Block and his orchestra of eleven men and a girl. A large silhouette of a couple decorated the wall behind the orchestra.

The prom was made a success by the work and diligence of the committee chairmen: refreshments, Connie Winter; program, Mary Calvey; decorations, Jean Holzschuh; orchestra, Phyllis Reinke; construction, Ralph Capelle; advertising, Delia Rossini; and the class advisors Miss Stowell and Mr. Laufenberg.

I've enjoyed being in 2nd Semester history class with you — Lots of luck Ben Harper

Press Club

The Hi-Lights, a Junior project, celebrated its tenth birthday this year. Except for two semesters, the publication has been a four-page printed paper. Members of the staff received instructions in journalistic writing at the Press Club, which met each Wednesday during the seventh hour.



In the picture at the left, Jean Holzschuh, this year's editor, and members of her staff, look over the forms of the paper. Reading left to right: M. Wolff, J. Radue, J. Longrie, M. Hill, Review employee, J. Holzschuh.

Library Club

Members of the Library Club served their fellow classmates as student librarians each school day. They kept the library attractive, took charge of the desk, recommended books, and helped students find references.

The officers of the club were:

President	Jane Gerber
Vice-President	Mary Hill
Secretary-Treasurer	Mary DeLong
Advisor	Miss Carlyle

In the scene above the student librarians are engaged in their various duties. At the left: Coila Sieber looks for a reference in the card catalog; Marian Guenther is putting the magazine rack in order, while Mary Hill is drawing a book at the desk from Mary DeLong and Jane Gerber. In the background at the right Loyce DeZwarte examines a book, while Joyce Van Der Sande consults the dictionary. Assisting students at the tables are Evelyn Strobel and Elaine Papendieck.

Conservation Club

Hunting and fishing enthusiasts of Plymouth High School organized a Conservation Club under the direction of Mr. Vernon Zimmerman. The club was composed of thirty boys who were interested in out-of-door life.

At the first meeting the following officers were elected:

President.....Alden Van Der Sande
Vice-President.....Roy Bohnhoff
Secretary-Treasurer .....Mickey Myers

The meetings were held twice a month, and during these meetings the boys discussed game laws and the safety precautions of hunters.

One of the real accomplishments of the club was to carry out a tree-planting project in the spring.

Future Farmers

The Future Farmers of America is a nationwide organization for boys studying vocational agriculture. The Plymouth chapter elected the following members as their officers for the past year:

President ..... John Holbrook
Vice-President ..... Daniel Doherty
Secretary ..... Harold Langkabel
Treasurer ..... Ray Kind
Reporter ..... Leander Gasper
Advisor ..... Mr. Splitgerber

The objectives of this club are to develop competent, aggressive rural and agricultural leadership; to strengthen the confidence of farm boys in themselves and their work, and to encourage members to improve their farm home and surroundings. Educational activity is provided through state competitive contests held at Madison.

An apple judging team consisting of Daniel Doherty, David O'Neill and Harold Blanke attended the contest, receiving good ratings. William Gasper, John Holbrook, and Hubert Blanke composed both the Poultry and Dairy Products judging teams, while the Dairy and Beef Cattle judges were Glenn Kalk, Leander Gasper, and Harold Laux. Both of these teams participated in the contest at Madison and also received good ratings.

A basketball team was formed by the members playing local teams evenings in the high school gym.

A bus load of Future Farmers traveled to Fond du Lac on March 25 to attend the Junior Dairymen's Meeting.

The club was divided into three groups, meeting on their respective Tuesdays during seventh hour.

Standing: G. Doebert, H. Arndt, L. Rosenthal, J. Laack, E. Weber, Miss Madden, H. Arndt, M. Guenther, H. Gerber, L. Rosenthal, G. Schuette, I. Wessel.

Home Economics Club

The Home Economics Club met every first and third Tuesday under the able guidance of Miss Madden.

The officers of the club were:

President.....Harriet Arndt
Vice-President .....Marion Sass
Secretary.....Marjorie Schulz
Treasurer.....Doreen Aderman

During the first semester the students were given the privilege of carrying out any project they wished, such as sewing, knitting, crocheting, or embroidery.

The second semester's work created a great interest among the members. Various speakers were presented to the club and spoke on such interesting topics as: "Hair Dressing," "Personality," "Make-up," and "Dating." Many students of P. H. S. have expressed the desire to listen to one of the lively discussions that followed.

The motto of the club is: "One thing well-done is better than two half-done."

Hi-Y

The officers of the Hi-Y were:

President.....Ray Lahl
Secretary and Treasurer.....Gordon Minch
Advisor.....Mr. Strohacker

One of the most active organizations of the high school is the Hi-Y club, which is a branch of the Y. M. C. A. Its purpose is to stimulate activity; create good fellowship and friendly feeling between young men; and to establish and maintain high standards of Christian character throughout our school and community.

The Hi-Y club is a national young men's organization, and the local branch was organized in 1934. Membership is limited to twenty. Young men wishing membership must submit their names to the club. Old members must cast a unanimous vote for each candidate before he can be admitted. The newly elected members are greeted by an informal initiation. Meetings were held every second and fourth Tuesday of each month during the seventh period. Special meetings held in the evenings are decided upon by members, designating the time and place.

The activities of the club consisted of the members going on swimming excursions, toboggan parties, hay rides and cross-country hikes. It sponsored an all-school ping-pong tournament, and an auditorium program.

Commercial Club

The Commercial Club was organized under the able direction of Mr. Williams, to create an interest in the commercial field and to help students prepare for future commercial jobs.

The club's officers for the first semester were:

President.....Adeline Yellen
Vice-President .....Delores Lueder
Secretary-Treasurer.....Isabelle Stephan

The officers for the second semester were:

President .....Betty Jane Dwyre
Vice-President.....Jean Baar
Secretary-Treasurer.....Elizabeth Passini

The twenty-six members had an opportunity to witness demonstrations on the ediphone, the electric adding machine, the bookkeeping machine, the comptometer, and the calculating machine.

German Club

The officers elected at the first meeting of the German Club this year were:

President.....Marion Bruegger
Vice-President .....Eunice Nicolaus
Secretary-Treasurer.....Shirley Wetzel
Advisor.....Miss Wernecke

This year, as has been the rule in the past, the German Club, accompanied by the German classes went caroling before Christmas. They caroled at the Plymouth Hospital and many homes throughout the city. Members of the German Club also presented a Christmas program before the assembly.

At the meetings the Club discussed the lives of famous German people whose birthdays occurred during that month.

Latin Club

The officers of the Latin Club elected at the first meeting were:

Consul .....Delia Rossini
Tribuni:
Orator.....Helen Fett
Pecunia.....Betty Feurer
English Secretary.....Phyllis Ambelang
Latin Secretary.....Joyce Radue
Bouncer .....Harriet Cary
Advisor.....Miss Wernecke

The meetings were held on the second Tuesday of each month. The club studied adjectives based on mythological characters and gave short skits based on Roman literature.

Spanish Club

A new feature this year was a Spanish Club under the able direction of Miss Alice Gruenberger. The club was started by students and several members of the faculty wishing to become acquainted with the Spanish language. Miss Gruenberger has had six years of the language, and offered to assist them.

The club met after school twice a week. At the meetings, lessons were assigned and discussed and often short Spanish plays were read.

Pen Pal Club

The officers of the Pen Pal Club were:

President.....Marion Janisse
Secretary and Treasurer.....Gladys Krautkramer
Advisor.....Miss Furman

Meetings were held the first Tuesday of each month. Foreign correspondence was the object of this club, the names being received from the International Student Society.

A business meeting was held at the beginning of each club period, and letters were read and discussed. This was followed by entertainment provided by a committee, appointed by the president.

Handicraft Club

The officers for the past year were:

President.....Calvin Brockman
Vice-President .....Ralph Capelle
Secretary-Treasurer.....Glen Williamson
Advisor .....Mr. Draeger

The Handicraft Club was open to all students who were interested in handicrafts. The purpose of the club was to give those interested in hobbies and handicraft an opportunity to do work they ordinarily could not do in school. It offered an outlet for original design and handicraft articles. The fields of work covered were art metal, electricity, and wood work.

The meetings were held twice a month, on the first and third Tuesdays. There were twenty-eight members.

Part Time School

A National Defense Course was given at the Part Time School this year for the first time. The course, consisting of mechanics and metal work, was taken by about a hundred rural youths for fifteen hours a week for eight weeks. Mr. Kahl, the instructor was ably assisted by men from the local garage, blacksmiths, and implement company.

The boys attending Part Time School formed the Junior Farmers Club, which met once a month throughout the year. The officers elected were:

President.....Amos Pretzel, Plymouth
Secretary.....Wilbur Bohnhoff, Plymouth
Treasurer .....Walter Danne, Waldo

The important activities of the club were herd testing and the fertilization of plots.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association was organized this year under the very capable supervision of Miss Abel.

The officers elected at the first meeting were:

President	Jean Larson
Vice-President	Evelyn Meyer
Secretary	Evelyn Siebert
Treasurer	Lyla Dennerlein

Several revisions were made, the most important being the point system. The point system was revised as follows:

In order to receive a letter, the members must fullfill the following requirements:

All members must participate in five outside activities per year, with no more than two excused absences for each sport and no unexcused absences.

Senior requirements — 2 intramural sports.
Junior requirements — 4 intramural sports.
Sophomore requirements — 6 intramural sports.
Freshman requirements — 8 intramural sports.

According to this revision, the seniors will be able to win their letters in one year.

On December 14 the G. A. A. sponsored a Play Day, to which neighboring schools sent representatives. Competitive games were played and the day was very successful.

The girls went on hikes and had a joint party with the Hi-Y.

Candy sales were held in the corridor to help earn money for the club. Also, the club sponsored a program in the auditorium.

Cheerleaders

When an "Are you with me?" rang through the air, with an echoing, "We are!" it meant that the cheerleaders were exciting pep from the student body or a representative group. Fred Pratt's specialty was "Rub-a-dub-dub," while Betty Yunker and Helene Hoffman liked "The Skyrocket"; little "Louie" Wendlandt liked them all and put plenty of pep into the yells.

Although if at times it was like pulling teeth to get the "kids" to yell, there were many times when that same crowd nearly "yelled the roof off the school building."

It was the job of the cheerleaders to keep up the morale of the team, so to speak, by urging the crowd to yell and cheer. In their colorful uniforms of orange and black, backed by a lot of pep in their voices and actions, they had every reason to expect response from the students.

A cheerleader's job was not an easy one. The cheerleaders had to plan all the pep meetings, practice their yells once or twice a week, and decide what yells were to be used for the night's game. They were always open to criticism and invited the students to offer any helpful suggestions.

Pep Club

At the first meeting of the year, the following officers of the Pep Club were elected:

President.....Fred Pratt
Vice-President.....Jean Larson
Secretary .....Frances Reihman
Treasurer.....Harold Zorn
Advisor .....Miss Abel

One of the outstanding events of the year was the Homecoming, sponsored by the Pep Club. The efficient work of all the committees under their general chairman, Harold Zorn, made this the greatest homecoming in the history of Plymouth High School.

Mary Calvey, who was elected queen by the students, chose Eugene Kretsch as her king. The king and queen, followed by their court of honor, led the grand march to the music of Bobby Bell and his orchestra.

The club met on the second Tuesday of each month, with a total of eighty-six members. The Pep Club led the school yells and songs, and also tried to stimulate a policy of good sportsmanship.

This organization was open to anyone interested and who was willing to contribute his or her efforts to the betterment of the club.

The Letter Club is an organization of boys who have won letters in football, basketball, and track. In order to become a member one must have played six quarters in football games, eight quarters in basketball games, or have received a total of five points in the conference and district track meets.

Fourteen boys were initiated into the club this year, thus making twenty-five members altogether.

Football

On August 31, football uniforms were issued to forty boys. Practice started on the following Monday, and the next two weeks were spent in putting the boys in condition.

The first competition with other schools came in a practice scrimmage with Sheboygan North on September 14. The regular season began on September 21, when Plymouth traveled to West Bend to meet their team. "Dame Fortune" was on West Bend's side and they ran the kick-off back for a touchdown. Plymouth was unable to "get going." The score remained 7-0 in favor of West Bend.

The following Friday, September 27, Plymouth suffered a second defeat from the visiting Kiel team. The score was Kiel 14, Plymouth 0.

On October 4, the day of revenge, Plymouth was host to the highly rated Port Washington eleven, and defeated them by a score of 20-12.

Plymouth's second victory came on October 12 and was obtained by defeating Sheboygan North's "B" team on their home field. The score was Plymouth 14, Sheboygan North 12.

But the following Friday, in the first conference game at Kiel, the Panthers ended up on the short end of the very close 12-13 score.

The Homecoming game on October 25 was a very satisfying game from the Plymouth supporters' point of view. Chilton went down under the Orange and Black, with Plymouth making their highest score of the season, 46 points to Chilton's 13.

In the last game of the year, on November 1, Plymouth was host to Hartford. The Hartford team proved superior, and the Panthers lost 33-0.

Future Panthers

Here's to Coach Strohacker and the future Panthers for their splendid work on the gridiron this year.

"Champions and the best" is what we can call the Freshman and Sophomore team for winning 7 games and losing only 1. This splendid record shows us that the future teams will always be on top. Here's wishing them many victories.

BASKETBALL

Although the team did not fare as well as those of previous years, the boys made a splendid showing of both moral and physical skill.

They got off to a bad start, losing their first two games to Fond du Lac Commercial College and Mayville. However, as the season progressed, the team improved, and finally took fourth place in the conference with a record of six wins and six defeats. The team traveled to Kewaunee where it took part in the regional tournament held there.

Although five "lettermen" will graduate there will be three "lettermen" and two other experienced players returning next year. The team was coached by Mr. Stahl and Mr. Helwig.

Junior High

One of the most active groups in Plymouth High School this year was the Junior High. They might have been the smallest students, but that didn't stop them when it came to participating in any school activities.

There were many clubs in the Junior High this year, which met on Tuesday, the day set aside for clubs. In sports they were very active; in speech and dramatics they were second to none; with their own student council they managed the affairs and activities of the Junior High; and with their own newspaper they printed the news about their own students.

The Council met every other Wednesday during activity period. The activities which it planned and organized during the past year were the organization of the club program, Junior High part in the Homecoming parade, Thanksgiving party, election of second semester officers, Valentine matinee dance, drawing up of the Junior High School Constitution, the advertising and ticket sale for "Tom Sawyer," the Speech Festival, and the sponsoring of letters for participation in athletics.

Junior High Clubs

NATURE CLUB

The objective of the Nature Club is to increase interest in and knowledge of nature. The club meets the fourth Tuesday of every month, and the maximum enrollment is thirty-five students. The president is Harold Bohnsack; vice-president, Richard Gerber; secretary, Phyllis Wagner, and the advisor is Miss Huff.

HOBBY CLUB

The Hobby Club has approximately fifteen members. The different hobbies that are represented are scrap books, making artificial flies, stamp collecting, and shell collecting.

In November the Hobby Club sponsored a Hobby Show open to all members of the Junior High. There were many entries and the show was very successful. During the second semester there were speakers at several meetings. Miss Margaret Wernecke spoke on her travels in Europe and showed her travel scrapbooks. At another meeting Mr. Robert Larson spoke on stamp collecting.

Phyllis Rohde was president of Hobby Club the first semester, and Robert Draeger was president during the second semester.

JUNIOR HIGH GLEE CLUB

The Junior High Glee Club met during the seventh period on Thursdays. The club was under the direction of Miss McHugh.

The members were:
Sopranos — Mary Zerler, Phyllis Wagner, Gladys Matzdorf, Jean Barber, Doris Grossheim, Helen Curtiss, Mary Ellen Splitgerber, Regina Kleinfeldt, Marcella Binder.

Second Sopranos — Sally Myers, Florence Mueller, Gloria Juers, Judy Gerber, Ione Hiller, Geraldine LeMahieu, Betty DeMunck, Phyllis Rohde, Lorraine Velie.

JUNIOR BAND

During the second hour on Mondays and Tuesdays a number of Junior High students have been busy in Junior Band under Mr. Intravaia's direction.

Members of Junior Band are:
Clarinets — Mary Zerler, Doris Grossheim.
Saxophones — Harold Bohnsack, Wayne Capelle.
Cornets — Keith Eifler, Robert Guhl, Robert Draeger.
Trombone — James Meininger.
Oboe — Gladys Matzdorf.
Drums — David Vesey, Carl Weisse.

Robert Draeger, Gladys Matzdorf, Mary Zerler, Sally Myers, Dawn Johnston, and Florence Mueller "strut their stuff" with the twirlers.

BOXING CLUB

There were about ten Junior High boys in the Boxing Club. They met with Mr. Zimmerman on the second Tuesday of every month. They learned the fundamentals of boxing and wrestling.

During the first part of the year they were taught wrestling and during the last part of the year they were taught boxing.

"Adventures of Tom Sawyer"

Presented by Junior High Dramatic Club

On Thursday evening, March 27, the Junior High Dramatic Club presented the "Adventures of Tom Sawyer" to the public.

The play began with a few of Tom Sawyer's (George Mathisen) pranks, which greatly annoyed his Aunt Polly (Ione Hiller). As the play progressed, we learned that Tom and Huck Finn (Donald Herrling) knew about a killing in a graveyard. They were afraid to tell anyone their secret for fear they would be killed by Injun Joe (Keith Eifler). Old Muff Potter was suspected of the murder, but he had not done it.

Tom also had his troubles with his new sweetheart, Becky Thatcher (Judy Gerber), with whom he had recently fallen in love.

The play turned out all right in the end when Tom and Huck freed Muff Potter, and Becky was friendly toward him again.

The complete cast was as follows:

Tom Sawyer, George Mathisen; Jim, a colored boy, George Siebert; Sidney, Tom's half brother, Donald Bade; Alfred Temple, Tom's rival, Harold Bohnsack; Huckleberry Finn, the bad boy of the village, Donald Herrling; Joe Harper, Tom's schoolmate, Robert Van Der Sande; Becky Thatcher, Tom's present sweetheart, Judy Gerber; Amy Lawrence, Tom's former sweetheart, Sally Myers; Mary, Tom's cousin, Phyllis Wagner; Aunt Polly, Tom's aunt, Ione Miller; Widow Douglas, a neighbor, Geraldine LeMahieu; Mrs. Harper, Joe's mother, Mary Ellen Splitgerber; Preacher's voice, Charles Brickner; Judge Thatcher, Becky's father, Ben Reichert; Injun Joe, a half breed, Keith Eifler.

Prompters — Emmy Lou Helmer, Dawn Johnston.

Properties — Barbara Regez, Billy Burke, Mary Zerler, Richard Bournoville.

Coach — Miss Emmagene Madden.

Standing: Mr. Zimmerman, C. Galbari, G. Siebert, K. Halle, C. Helming.
Sitting: J. Laske, H. Schuette, J. Bremser, C. Splitgerber, J. Hoffman, A. Meerstein.
